Customer Reviews

Novices like myself, will find this publication a little confusing on first reading. If you reread it slowly and with purpose, it begins to make sense. I haven't found the CD useful, but I am still in learning mode.

love this book has some oldies but goodies

This is a great guitar book. It has a large variety to suit many different people. whether you like pop, country, soul, rock or bluegrass it will keep you interested in learning and playing the guitar.

This book is so simple, it makes guitar playing so fun and exciting! I would recommend it to any beginning guitar player. The CD is also a huge bonus, so you can check yourself and play along.

Nice book for beginners

This book is easy to follow and contains lots of popular songs on CD. The charts and visual tools are a plus!

This book is very easy to understand, and a great tool for people who are just starting to play the guitar!

Book is very good along with the cd it helps in learning the guitar.
