The Hong Kong And Macau Taxi Guide

Synopsis

10 Years Anniversary of helping individuals navigate tricky communications with taxi drivers. Don't let taking a taxi in this Asian city worry you when you have this simple tool to help you communicate with the driver. The process is simple and effective. First , find the page with your destination and either mark the location with the provided arrow sticker or mark the page with the ribbon. Second, show the taxi driver the page with your destination and he will have no problem understanding where you want to go. It's that easy. No more communication problems! This guide will help you get to all of the city s most frequented destinations as well as to some of the more off the beaten-track locations that add so much to this city's charm. ## Customer Reviews

If you are a non-Chinese speaker, and cannot get around without pockets full of paper slips bearing the names of destinations in Chinese characters, then the Taxi Lingo Guide series of books are for you. --Time Magazine - December 2006

Kimberly Fayet Whiley has been working and living in Hong Kong since 1989. She came up with the book's concept when traveling in Beijing in 1993 and found everyone living there had name cards and pieces of paper in their wallets to get around the city. She knew a simple book could do the trick and published the Hong Kong and Macau Taxi Guide a year later. In 2008 she rebranded the books under the Taxi Lingo brand . There are currently books available for Hong Kong, Macau, Shenzhen, Shanghai and Beijing. Contact us for information on when the new app version will be completed.
