Northern Manitoba From Forest To Tundra : A Canoeing Guide And Wilderness Companion

Synopsis

Northern Manitoba is a primeval wilderness of spectacular rivers and forests. Yet it is virtually unknown to all but a small number of adventurous canoeists. Most people wrongly believe that traveling there requires months of planning and great expense. This is the only book devoted to wilderness travel in Northern Manitoba, with 29 detailed routes and an enthralling description of the environment and history. This book shows how remarkably accessible this beautiful country can be.

Customer Reviews

Very well researched ... the author is an experienced canoeist and expert back woods man, and obviously knows a hell of a lot. -- John Norget, Winnipeg, Manitoba

Paul Gahlinger has traveled throughout the Arctic, from Alaska to Greenland. He is a commercial pilot, has worked as a logger and miner, and holds an M.A. in Anthropology from the University of Manitoba. With a naturalist's eye for detail, he provides a thorough description of the land and waterways of the Northern Manitoba wilderness.

It arrived quickly and in excellent condition. I have no complaints. The billing was easy and over all I am very happy with this.

I always dreamed of going to Canada, especially to do a canoeing trip. But most of the canoeing books I found were too boring or just gave the routes, while the nature books didn't have the travel information. This book is awesome! I loved reading the descriptions and the vignettes, and the sketches are delightful. It provides the cultural and historical information that really brought the trip to life. I highly recommend it. Perfect as a 'wilderness companion'.
