In addition to the problems with the odd pronunciation of "vav" is the fact that this was recorded on a narrow band-width microphone, which obscures many of the sounds--especially at the beginning and end of words. I find about 20% of the words unrecognizable without referring to the pamphlet.

I must say, this wouldn't be useful, if it did not have the book included. I need to see the words before me as I pronounce them in order for it to sink into my head. I have no problem with the old Hebrew, because I am studying Hebrew to understand the Bible more clearly, as it was written. It also is so close to modern Hebrew, that no one should have a problem.

With our fast lives these days, we must take the time to squeeze important things into our lives. This will work just fine for me, as I start a new adventure in reading the Bible again, but now understanding the original language. I wish to find other "on the go" series!

Excelent tool for student biblical hebrew because the words are listed by frequency. So I can concentrate in the more common words

Thankful that I can hear it now as well! Makes learning a whole lot easier!

It is well made. He has a clear voice and phonetic speaks slow enough that I can repeat it out loud. It came with a booklet with all the words and the frequency which are in the Bible. I just received yesterday and by listening twice last night I've learn few words and refreshed several words I had forgotten. Recommend to anyone that is attempting to have a quick grasp on the Hebrew.

Strange, academic pronunciation is distracting (w sound for v and th for d). Done from a very Christian perspective which is also exceedingly distracting and irritating. Manner of presentation nonsensical. I bought it to review vocabulary in the car, but it's not going to work. The only product I can use from Zondervon are the flash cards. I'll have to look for another product.

I am using this to help me with my Bat Mitzvah studies.
