The romantic and the louche rub shoulders in Robert Louis Stevenson's eloquent tribute to his birthplace. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

Very useful book for everyone who wants to know what Edinburgh looked like in the second half of the 19th century. Thanks to the excellent writing of the great author R.L. Stevenson one can make their own picture about the city which has kept its uniqueness and charm until these days. Edinburgh is a real pearl among British towns and cities.

RLS takes on a nice tour of Edinburgh with little gems along the way!
