Juliette de Bairacli Levy (1912-2009) was a herbalist and author noted for her pioneering work in holistic veterinary medicine, studying in Europe, Turkey, North Africa, Israel and Greece, living with gypsies and farmers, and acquiring herbal lore from them. She is the author of many successful books including The Complete Herbal Handbook for the Dog and Cat (Faber), The Complete Herbal Handbook for Farm and Stable (Faber), and Cats Naturally (Faber).

Anything this woman writes is of great value and written for practical application. I have nearly all of her books in my personal library because I believed that anybody who travelled the world, live with the indigenous people's and gather their healing stories and recipes, deserved to be heard! Every herbal recipe that I've ever used of Juliette's whether to heal my son or my pets, proved to be of great value! Juliette is in a field of her very own....One of the World's Leading Herbalist! There was only one Juliette, and she "cut her own path" into herbal history!

Thanks!

Juliette de Bairacli Levy is first and foremost one of the world's most famous herbalists. She lived and learned from the Gypsies of Europe how to grow and use medicinal plants for people and for animals. There is a wonderful video of her life by Tish Streeten called "Juliette of the Herbs". Cats Naturally is based on raising cats according to the cat rather than the human. Diet is determined in large part by their diet in the wild, medicines according to their own means of healing when left alone. There are herbal remedies for parasites and insects (mange, ear mites, ticks, lice, fleas & ringworm), and herbal remedies for digestive problems and other ailments. It is a great book and one I have used happily with my very beautiful and very healthy cats. This is a very sensible book by a very sensible, wise and loving woman.

I've read many books on this subject and find this book to be out dated. Some of the author's recommendations are not up to today's standards.
