Customer Reviews

I read the book on the plane from Houston to Guam. I was on my way to Pohnpei. I enjoyed the historical context it provided for my trip. It is an interesting travel narrative of a fascinating and little known region. It was like reading an old "National Geographic" written by a spy.

Very hard to find exploration and adventure on Japan's Pacific hidden islands. Written in the middle of World War II, so author talks about the war, of course. Photos & drawings. Note more details of the content on the bookjacket above - covers islands of Truk, Ponape, Palau, Yap, Saipan. Great deal, highly recommended.
