Saratoga Summers: A Short Story

Synopsis

July Carter is the daughter of a racehorse trainer and a jockey, always surrounded by other people's horses. Beck Delaney is an owner's son, his name connected to a growing horse farm in need of a trainer. July's dad fits the bill perfectly. Now summers for July will be spent at beautiful Blackbridge Farm, training Thoroughbreds for the races at Saratoga, a horse racing paradise. With Beck. What could possibly go wrong? Saratoga Summers is a fifty-page short story prequel and immediate sequel to Stay the Distance.

Customer Reviews

You can also find this review on my blog Courtney's Reads This was so incredibly perfect. It's short, fun, sweet. Horses, July, Beck. What more could you ask for? I love these two together and seeing their relationship as it developed over the years was perfect. There's also some of the family drama that made Stay the Distance so real, beautiful horses and racing. A great little story. If you haven't read Stay the Distance yet...Do it! Right now! And then read this.

Not bad for basically in introductory short story.

Great short story that fleshes out the characters and backstory from Stay the Distance. It was great to see July and Beck again, and I can't wait for Finding Daylight!

I loved Stay the Distance, so any chance to get back into this story of Mara's is much appreciated. I'm so glad to have another bit of July's story.

More Beck & July. What's not to love? Beck, especially!!

Very amusing short story which I hope has a continuing story line in a future book. Thank you Mara your books are always excellent.

A lovely collection, giving me the escape I needed when I picked it up. Fantastic characters, great stories. Overall, a brilliant read.
