Customer Reviews

Born during the Battle of Britain, Newton was educated in Newport, Monmouthshire and in Nottingham University where he received a degree in Electrical Engineering in 1963. He worked in Steel Mills and Pulp Mills in the U.K. and Canada before becoming a Consulting Engineer in Vancouver, British Columbia. Later, he became a High Tech Marketing Consultant and retired in 1990. Published works include technical articles for international lighting periodicals and building magazines as well as travel articles for local newspapers. In the summer, Newton and his wife, Noreen, live in West Vancouver, Canada where they cycle and hike in the local mountains. In the winter, they travel extensively in warm countries. Once a year they take a group of adventurous travellers to Bali and Lombok and soon they plan to take a group tour to Borneo. They spend several months each winter in Honduras, where they own a small beachfront property. Newton has three adult daughters who live in England and a son and stepdaughter living in Canada.
