"Packed with color and variety, this is a fine pick for a wide range of collections." --The Midwest Book Review

Steven Faerm is the B.F.A. Director of Fashion Design at Parsons The New School for Design in New York City. He is also the author of 200 Projects to Get You Into Fashion and Design, a title in Barron's Aspire Series.

This is THE book you need for all things fashion, sewing, drawing, materials, fabrics, etc. I read the review that said this is the actual textbook used in a fashion course at a popular fashion school. Excellent!

Still looking it over! But you sure can learn a lot of it.

good to read

My fashion collection tutor recommended this book to me and ii have found it to be very instructive and helpful. I like the structure of the courses and they are easy to follow instruction. I would recommend to all students in fashion design courses.

This is a great introductory book. It provides the students with knowledge of the history of fashion design while challenging them to create lines of clothing based on that history, well respected designers, nature and their own imagination.

Absolutely love this book - It teaches you from A to Z in fashion, and it has awesome sketches to inspire you on your own drawings.
