Customer Reviews

The author was the eldest in the Parton family and here provides an insider's account of family interactions and history in rural Tennessee. Fans of the country singer Dolly Parton will appreciate this in-depth autobiography which covers both the author's childhood and life and the experience of being a part of a large and supportive family. -- Midwest Book Review

I just started this one. It seems to be filled with a lot of great stories. It is in great shap. Looks new.

A good like inside the Parton family and their values and beliefs

Good book recieved it fast

I love this book. It really show you what it must of been like growing up with the Parton family. It's an easy read, and I loved it.Kalle Kennedy london
