Customer Reviews

This is an awesome book for me and my 3 year old as we battle this world of easy processed food. He loves sweets but since we have been reading together, he actually wants to eat broccoli ... and That is a miracle! Kudos to the author great concept.

I would highly recommend this book to families with toddlers and young children. The story line made learning about new healthy foods more fun and kept my 2.5 year olds attention. I look forward to more fun and educational books by this author.

Phenomenal work for a healthy new generation!

I love love love this book! It is full of lots of tasty food pictures and illustrations. Will definitely share
