"...both entertaining and informative. Your humor combined with the powerful information is like combining Steve Martin and Steve Forbes." - JIM STOVALL -(Emmy Award winner, International Humanitarian of the Year Award winner, Entrepreneur of the Year Award winner, best known for his bestselling novel The Ultimate Gift)

This book is the culmination of years that I have spent business coaching diligent business owners like you that have a sincere interest in developing the time freedom and financial freedom that they have always wanted. When it comes to business growth and consulting, I can confidently say that the action items, stories, Marination Moments, and "notable quotables" will help you succeed in business, and also in life. Become proactive with your business and transition from working IN your business to ON it.Â From my vast experience business consulting, everything you need is now in one book. Inside this book you will find unfiltered entrepreneurship - real and raw stories that allow you to learn through us as mentors rather than your own mistakes.Â

As someone who has read many excellent business books throughout his career before meeting Clay Clark and Marshall Morris, I can say there are many great books on business and how to start a business. However, there are exactly ZERO books better than this one. The Start Here book doesn't just provide you with the steps, but also the templates and platform you need to point yourself toward a pathway to success. The passion of the authors shine through and this is a book that should be the only textbook an business student needs during their education, whether in college or on ones own. With such an actionable book from start to finish, it is easy to give this book 5 stars and my only wish would be to be able to give it 10 stars. It is that good.

Well this is Actually Michael Desrochers on his wife's account. I digress though. When it comes to business books most people think boring legal self help crap. When reading this book it has inspired me, but also giving me the knowledge and information needed in order to Thrive not just survive in life. Not only with my Finances but with my Family, Friends, Fitness, and most important my Faith and Fun. I recommend any book written by Clay Clark. This Is an awesome and amazing read you wont want to put it down

Step by step guide on how to build a profitable replicable business. If you want time and financial freedom with your business follow the steps in this book to a T and this unicorn shall be yours to ride.

This book is my step by step guide to business success. Starting a business is a daunting task, but this book breaks it down into steps - when followed, with a dash of tenacity, these steps will guide you and your business to the top! Great read!

Perfect start and finish. Process that is valuable every step of the way. Using this book every week as I move forward with a business and product launch. You will start using it right away. If you want to grow get the book. Phil M

A very comprehensive and informative book. An easy reading tutorial on how to get your business going. Hard to put down!

The best book I have ever read!!!

Clay and Marshall have nailed what a business book should be. This book is thick, and packed with action lists that are helping me grow my business to the next level. The book has a good amount of topical humor from Clay and tons of free online checklists and forms that are helping me find the quickest way to success in my business. I have read many business and marketing books, no other book has the direct steps and checklists like what is in this book. Highly recommend.
