Bob Singleton is a Grammy-nominated and multi-platinum album award-winning producer, composer and arranger. His music work includes over 70 PBS episodes, over 30 albums, an NBC network special, and a sold-out Radio City Music Hall run. In the 90's, Bob became one of the top creators of music for kids in the USA. He was a music director on Barney® and Friends for 10 years, and his music for Barney is still heard in over 100 countries, worldwide. He produced over 30 albums for children, gathering a Grammy nomination, 4 Dove nominations, a triple platinum album and a platinum album.

This is good music, but the songs were a bit slow and the instrumentals were rarely conducive to "active" singing. It would be good for preschoolers to listen to in the car to familiarize them with some older choruses, but not for leading wake up and move worship in church class settings.
