Diamond Log Cabin: Tablecloth Or Treeskirt

Synopsis

Eleanor Burns and Frieda Harrod have combined efforts to create a quick and impressive version of this traditional pattern. Their construction of the Diamond Log Cabin is based on quick assembly-line sewing and strip piecing methods from the Quilt in a Day® Log Cabin book. However, the design is taken one step further with rotary cutting on a 60 degree line. Make an impressive tablecloth, and for the holidays, a unique skirt for your tree. The approximate size is 74" across center.

love this pattern

I've had this book but misplaced and wanted to recreate the project again. This is a wonderful project, fast and easy and becomes an heirloom as the tree skirt is taken out from year to year. Now my children have families of their own and celebrate holidays at home I wanted to give them their own heirloom to remember the Christmas holiday from year to year.

absolutely fantastic

Good book

This quilting pattern/book was just as I expected - Eleanor Burns is a classic and her diagrams, pictures and instructions are great. Thanks

A nice book, however it is not a collectible and is still sold through most quilt shops and can still be purchased from the publisher [...] for the retail price of $6.95 brand new.
