Deanna Draper Buck originally wrote her simple versions of scripture stories as gifts for her family. She and her husband, George, live in Louisville, Kentucky. They have eight children and eight grandchildren.

BOM stories simplified for children. Very little of the non child appropriate things that generally come from war and things depicted in the scriptures.

This is a great way to introduce your little ones to The Book of Mormon. Love it.

Got these for our kids to have as they learn and our oldest (2.5 yrs) loves them. Makes telling scripture stories easy.

Great format, but the wording isn't very kid-friendly.

This book has lovely pictures and it's a good summary of some of the favorite stories of the Book of Mormon. I just wish this was a hardcover book rather than a board book. There are lots of words on every page, which do tell a good summary of the stories, but this is not a baby book. It is better suited for older kids.

My kids love this book. I was always on the lookout for a book of Mormon for little children because they just did not pay attention when I would read out of the scriptures. This is a great alternative for toddlers. They are learning about the BOM prophets and really are getting a grasp of the stories.

love reading this with my grandson!

Great pictures and simple intro to the BOM.
