The Manticore's Soiree

Synopsis

Fourteen tales of speculative fiction from the author of The Crimson Queen. Beneath the demon-haunted ruins of Nes Vaneth a priest of the old ways confronts his darkest fears... A young hacker risks everything to rescue the mind of her friend from the clutches of a malicious AI... On a moon of Mars the guardian of humanity awakens to find the solar system in peril... And a dilettante invites a mantichore to accompany him to an infamous engagement. The Mantichore's Soiree contains three stories set in the world of The Crimson Queen: the novelette "Chalice and Chance", the short story "The Fall of the Raven Thane", and the first chapter of The Shadow King, the sequel to The Crimson Queen. Includes the novelette "Twilight's End", also available as a stand-alone story.

Customer Reviews

I finished the first book Crimson Queen yesterday and had to read more, to enjoy and to critique. I am not disappointed. Mr. Hudson writes very well. If you are a fan of Patrick Rothfuss, Robin Hobb, or G R. R Martin, great writers in that genre, then I highly recommend Alex Hudson to you. The only regret you will have is that you, as I, have to wait for sequels..
