Book by Christian Swindells

Full of all the info you really want, great history sections (and maps that could use some improvement in readability), these guides are tremendous - including this Warsaw guide. Used it in July for 9 days in Warsaw and it never let us down. I supplemented with the free map available at our hotel, and it worked perfectly. I always go back to Cook's guides -- and I've tried all the others, believe me! Only Michelins come close, in my opinion. But do be aware: these finely produced books are a bit heavy!
