Czech Republic (National Geographic Adventure Map)

Synopsis

â € Waterproof â € Tear-Resistant â € Travel MapNational Geographicâ™s Czech Republic Adventure Map provides global travelers with the perfect combination of detail and perspective in a highly functional travel tool. This expertly crafted map includes the locations of thousands of cities and towns with an index for easily locating them, plus a clearly marked road network complete with distances and designations for motorways, expressways, major roadways, secondary routes, and more. Specialty content to include hundreds of diverse and unique recreational, ecological, cultural, and historical destinations, make this map invaluable to travelers hoping to experience all the attractions the country has to offer. Among these varied points of interest are World Heritage sites, botanical gardens, zoos, museums, winter sports resorts, golf courses, archeological sites, monuments, castles, and churches. The eastern half of the country from the cities of Hradec Kralove, Havlickuv Brod, and Jihlava to the eastern border with Slovakia and Poland is shown on the front side of the print map. The reverse side details the western half of the country including its capital Prague, and the cities of Liberec, Kutna Hora, and Jindrichuv Hradec to the western border with Germany. Users will find a variety of helpful travel aids on this map as well, including the location of airports, airfields, railroads, and even some cable car routes. Every Adventure Map is printed on durable synthetic paper, making them waterproof, tear-resistant and tough â € capable of withstanding the rigors of international travel. Founded in 1915 as the Cartographic Group, the first division of National Geographic, National Geographic Maps has been responsible for illustrating the world around us through the art and science of mapmaking. Today, National Geographic Maps continues this mission by creating the world's best wall maps, recreation maps, atlases, and globes which inspire people to care about and explore their world.

*UPDATE 10/16We have been touring the Czech Republic for two weeks using this map and it is FANTASTIC. I use it everyday along with our GPS so I always know where I am. There have been a couple of times that the GPS has wanted to go "cross-country" instead of using the larger roads so I have done some guiding outside of our GPS directions. EVERY little town and burg is on this map. It's one of the best I have every used! I have folded & re-folded it a dozen times and it is still holding up quite well.My husband has been planning our trip to the Czech Republic next fall and we just received this National Geographic map. He loves it and has declared it "very detailed". Since we do not normally take tours he plans the trip entirely himself starting with a book that has hooked him into the country. In this case it was a Rick Steves book. We then purchase 1-2 more books and a detailed road map of the country. THEN, he plans and I pack my bags a few days before the scheduled trip. This map has a plastic coating on it and we have had those type of maps in the past. They fold and unfold well as I use them everyday from my navigating passenger seat. It should be fun - lots to do once we leave the big city/capital and explore the countryside.

This is a wonderful map of the Czech Republic. The finish on this map is very durable & waterproof. It shows even the smallest villages. Half the country is on one side; the other half on the other side. It's very easy to fold and only expose the section you want to see. Very helpful for a trip to the Czech Republic, to mark all the little villages we wanted to visit.

A nice, heavy duty map. Includes street maps of major cities. It was exactly what I was looking for.

Nice map but printing is way too small for me....can barely read the names on some of the towns. Will still bring on trip but not as good as I thought it would be. Taking it as a backup with GPS system.

A well detailed, sturdy map-just what I needed to see where I have been and where I need to go.

Helpful in planning rail and bus travel since it lists very small towns as well as larger ones.

Was great for finding the back roads in Czechia.

Good clear map.

Just the thing!
