Customer Reviews

I love this author's books about the Demonsouled, but the editing is below average. I've read the entire Demonsouled series and am now reading the next set of books in the series. I obviously find the books good enough to keep reading through the mistakes. It's definitely worth it!

This book is not plagued with the spell check errors of the original series. It brings a different view from some older minor characters that help fill out the story.

I really do like this Mazel character. So far it has been some really good reads. Keep up the good work!

I love the entire demonsouled saga. Sometimes the main character in most stories are a tad annoying, this one is not bad, and it was definitely an enjoyable read! I'll be reading the next for sure!

love this series but could use a good proof reader-all his books are great stories yet have lots of little errors-spelling etc.

First book I read by this author and I was immediatelt hooked. Highly recommended!

Great read. Like how the story take off from the last series and continues to follow the main caricatures.

I realy like the way this new series started because it keeps all the good characters from the first serie and also expands it in a realistic and natural way .Thank you for bringing me back one of my favorite character !
