Spotlight On Young Children And Language

Synopsis

This vibrant book, compiled from Young Children articles, focuses on the varied powers of play-as a source of enjoyment and as a tool for learning. Addresses areas such as play's role in academic learning, toddler play, outdoor play, theories of play, adaptations for children with special needs, and media impact on play. Also includes a list of key resources in the area and carefully designed questions and activities to aid readers in reflecting on the articles.

Customer Reviews

it had no highlighting or writing in it. it is very light so my backpack didn't get more heavy.stupendously awesome.

Lot of money for a little magazine

I received my order about two - three days after I placed the order. The book was in great condition.
