Customer Reviews

"... everything which the newcomer to this branch of electronics is likely to want to know is here"Physics Education"Staff were particularly impressed with this title, suggesting that although it has primarily been written to cater for BTEC National/GNVQ Advanced students, its value to students studying on City and Guilds 2240 programmes should not be overlooked. The practical approach adopted by the author and the fact that Mathematics has been kept to a minimum was thought to make for a particularly accessible read."Engineering Lecturer
