GREAT BOOK.!

it had great refrence

Great book for collectors. Has a nice little checklist and is very neatly arranged. HOWEVER this book is old and does not go past the year 2000 but for what I needed it for its a good book as many collectors only worry about the older beanies.

very good book for beanie lovers

NICE TO HAVE HANDY

Fast Shipping, great book, as described. Just what I was looking for. Thanks a bunch

I can't wait for son to see this.

The only reason that I don't give this five stars is because I do not actually collect beanie babies (ooh! heresy!). I do have a few for holiday decoration purposes. And that's it. Really. But back to the book. I happen to know it was written under a tight deadline and I'm most impressed with the result. Each and every Beanie Babie (at time of publication) is thoroughly profiled. There is at least one B&W and one color photograph of each Beanie Baby. Each has a great discussion plus a painstaking dissection of the "variations" within each, if applicable (for example, Zip the cat). The notes are truly remarkable, and the newcomer can either take them as interesting anecdotes, or the hardcore collector as a convenient one-stop compendium of detailed information. There are also more general chapters such as why one should collect (for the joy of it, of course), tips on buying and selling and explaining Ty's position on the secondary market. How to spot counterfeits. How to store the Beanie Babies. There is also an extensive index in the back to help you sort and inventory your own collection. All in all, this book should be useful to both folks trying to figure out just what the heck all this fuss over Beanie Babies is about and to bona fide collectors interested in every detail about each Beanie.--Cindy
