Follow The Lamb

Synopsis

Nineteenth century pastor and hymn-writer Horatius Bonar is most widely known for the rich treasury of hymns he bequeathed to this world; but a growing number of believers today are finding inspiration in this hidden gem: a powerful handbook for living the Christian life. It was first penned to give new believers a broad orientation and firm footing as they were sent off on their brand new journey with the Master. In today's tumultuous spiritual atmosphere, new believers and mature believers alike are finding solace, direction and affirmation in the wisdom and guidance of this big-hearted man of God who himself walked in the footsteps of the Lamb.

Customer Reviews

If you are a serious Christian, this is a wonderful directive to study and read with full savor and some notetaking. The writing old style (no examples) and but the advice is timeless and I found the author's counsel endearing even though it's intent was to exhort! It is book to stretch my spiritual muscle. The advice contained within for me as a Christ follower is solid and substantial This is a book to own. I have in the Kindle version and plan to buy the book for my library.

Love his outlook

Excellent Book sorely needed by the modern church..

This is a fantastic book that should be recommended reading for all Christians. I'm certain that I'll read it more than once because it not only offers practical advice but great encouragement as well.

Very good read so far, I love it.

Wow! I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book! Very encouraging truths! I would definately read it again! Loved, loved, loved! Glad i purchased it!

I loved this book. Very deep truths touched upon here if only you open your eyes wide enough to see them. I will read this again.
