Gibraltar, Seville And Costa De La Luz: Etravellers Guide

Synopsis

The Andalusia region of South West Spain is rated as one of the most beautiful parts of Europe. However, rather than the sun and sea resorts on its Mediterranean coast, why not explore its more natural side? Seville, centre to all things cultural, is a delightful city full of spectacular buildings and mind boggling museums. Travel a few hours south, through the centre of Spain's horse breeding and sherry producing flatlands, and you will reach Cadiz, the oldest city in Europe, with its fascinating history dating back over 3000 years. Follow the glorious Costa de la Luz, through the buzzing seaside resort of Conil, choc full of great value tapas bars and exquisite seafood restaurants beside 14 kilometres of sandy beach, and you will eventually end up on the tiny but pretentious island of Gibraltar. As will all eTravellers guides, this 10,000 word ebook will document brief histories, places to see and eat, as well as specific details of each of the towns en route. If you are visiting this beautiful area for holiday, work or activity, then this great value guide will be essential to your journey. Check out other ebooks in the eTravellers guide series.
